John, Anne Plans Wait On Congress

Some of the plans for the No. 1 wedding are waiting on Congress.

If Congress wants to please John Roosevelt and Anne Lindsay Clark, it'll hurry up and adjourn.

"My father won't be able to leave Washington until just before our wedding, if Congress is still in session," John said today. "That will mean he will come by train, instead of on the yacht Potomac."

PLANS IN AIR

"And if the Potomac isn't here, we can't have our pre-nuptial party on board, as originally planned."

"So you see, until Congress does adjourn, we can't really make final plans at all for the night before our wedding."

Anne Clark, summery in a flowered print cotton frock, nodded grave agreement.

But John, as usual, did the talking today, as the engaged couple, all America is excited

No Peek-a-Boo—Elizabeth P. Ingalls, 18, of Cambridge, crouches down in car after being fined $110 for drunken driving in Judge Clifford B. Sanborn's Dedham district court. Two Harvard students, who had been in car with her, were released.

Ice Man Has 8-Ton Oil Truck $100, Owes Million Afire in Chelsea

When Howard H. Davenport was graduated from Harvard more than 40 years ago, after working his way through, he took a $75-a-month ice company job and finally worked up into the multi-millionaire class.

Today he filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in federal court, listing liabilities of $1,170,161 and assets of $100.

President, vice-president or director in more than two dozen companies, Davenport described himself in the bankruptcy petition as a sales manager, one of his titles with the Metropolitan Ice Company of Somerville.

A heavy, six-wheel, eight-ton oil truck broke down and caught fire on heavily-travelled Eastern avenue in Chelsea today, endangering hundreds of spectators and threatening the district by explosion.

The truck, driven by Raymond Hamilton, 28, of Irving avenue, Lawrence, threw a wheel as it was passing Hooper street. The dual-tired wheel narrowly missed a passer-by.

A spark struck the metal axle hit the street and started the gasoline on the bottom of the truck burning. A joint broke open a valve to feed the flames.

Harvard Boys Beg In Vain for Her

Youngest girl ever to appear on that charge, Miss Elizabeth P. Ingalls, 18, of 31 Concord avenue, Cambridge, business school student, was today found guilty of drunken driving by Judge Clifford B. Sanborn in Dedham district court.

Two Harvard students, occupants of the automobile she was operating, who were arrested for intoxication at the same time and later released, unsuccessfully tried to plead for her discharge in court.

Judge Sanborn fined Miss Ingalls $110 after hearing Officer Joseph Fleming of the Wellesley police, corroborated by Officer Ernest Fischer, testify that the automobile carrying the trio almost wrecked his cruiser car and another parked nearby.

SAYS OFFICER ROUGH

She did not appeal but paid part of her fine and arranged to pay the balance.

Fleming also testified that when he ordered the girl from the wheel she became abusive and labelled him with several unlady-like epithets.

In her own defense Miss Ingalls admitted she had no license and confessed that she and a Wellesley College girl and the two Harvard students had been to a beer parlor.

She denied, however, that she was intoxicated when halted by Officer Fleming and declared his rough tactics had upset her.

BEER TOO "STRONG"

The two Harvard students, both seniors, who were involved with her and testified in her defense were Henry C. Low of Kansas City and Alfred Arthur Robert Brenholts of Columbus, O.

Brenholts paid some kind of a compliment to the beer served in Wellesley taverns when he told Judge Sanborn that on a trip to Germany last year he was able to consume almost unlimited quantities of the brew without bad results, while only three glasses in Wellesley on the occasion in question seemed to throw him for a loss in less than no time.

106,000 Killed Accidentally in '37

CHICAGO, June 13 (AP)—The National Safety Council announced today that accidents claimed 106,000 lives in 1937—a total more than twice as great as the number of American lives lost in the World War. Injuries from accidents disabled 9,500,000 persons during the year—at least one member of every fourth family. The calculable costs of all accidents ran to $3,800,000,000.

Czech Nazis Push Gains

(Editor's note: Told by Sudeten leaders that differences between Czechoslovakia and Germany must result in war and the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia, H. R. Knickerbocker today returned to Prague from a tour of the Sudeten areas on election day. The noted observer of the international scene predicts a dangerous tug-of-war between the Nazis and the Czech government over the issue of Sudeten self-rule will begin.)

PRAGUE, June 13 (INS)—Europe today enters upon a new and more dangerous phase of the Czech-German conflict.

This country yesterday completed its third and last of a series of municipal elections with a perfect record of public order marred by fewer disturbances than are customary even in local political contests in America.

Now begins a period of acute hostilities between the government and Hitler's and Henlein's Germans, who have emerged from the balloting with approximately 50 per cent of all the German votes.

CZECHS TO REFUSE

Elated by success, they are today preparing to push their demands for autonomy to the limit, which the Czech government cannot accept, and this week may bring nearer the final ultimatum for the plebiscite which the Henlein Germans hope will make them citizens of the Reich.

But the Czech government will not grant it.

What this means for Europe can best be understood by conversation with Henlein leaders in their own territory.

The speech of Rudolf Hess, deputy Nazi leader, in which he declared it was false that Germany ever contemplated attacking Czechoslovakia, and that the Germans, knowing what war means, would never start one, but that Czechoslovakia's very existence is a mockery of the principle of self-determination, aroused deep but restrained indignation here.

Resentment was particularly great over his statement that Czechoslovakia had mobilized without grounds.

The government's desire to be conciliatory is, however, so reasonable that it is unlikely any official reply will be made.

SEES WAR CERTAIN

A Nazi spokesman, who declared that his name not be used, but who was willing to have his views placed before the American public, declared:

"It must come to war, because the Czechs will defend themselves. I admit they will fight. We cannot avoid it, because no agreement is possible.

"We shall not be content with mere autonomy, nor even with our annexation by the Reich. The Reich must have all Bohemia and Moravia."

This includes, of course, Prague and the wealthiest part of the country.

"We'll give Slovakia to Hungary," he continued.

I asked what they were going to do with the 7,000,000 Czechs.

"We'll either Germanize them, or the Czechs will simply have to go under."

"The fate of 7,000,000 Czechs can hardly be allowed to interfere with the destiny of 78,000,000 Germans—for remember, we shall be 78,000,000 when we come into the Reich."

FRUITS OF CONQUEST

"It is nonsense to deny that we do have an urge towards the East, and after we have conquered Czechoslovakia, we will obtain Rumanian oil and Hungarian wheat for economic conquest."

Asked when the Sudeten expected the great day, he replied:

"When England comes to her senses."

"She was ready to fight me. She would have marched that day the Czechs mobilized if Germany had marched."

"But we are confident that England will not continue for long, ready to risk her empire and plunge the world into war on account of 7,000,000 Czechs."

"If England stays neutral Italy will also, but if England comes in Italy will seize Egypt and bring order into the Mediterranean."

Congress Aids Peace By Defense

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—A record-breaking peacetime program for expanding Uncle Sam's national defenses stood out today as a major accomplishment of the 1938 Congress.

Secretary Woodring told House leaders that more important legislation to strengthen the country's armed services had been enacted this year than at any time since the World War.

Chairman Vinson (D.) of Georgia, of the House naval committee, commented:

"It will do more to promote peace, too, than anything else we have done."

Direct appropriations totaling more than $1,000,000,000 were voted to run the army and navy for the next fiscal year. Congress also authorized a billion-dollar increase in the size of the navy, causing officials to declare it would become the most powerful, if not the biggest, fleet.

The navy will be able to add 46 warships and 26 auxiliary vessels to its previous top strength. Nine hundred and fifty additional naval airplanes can be acquired and a "mystery fleet" of swift coastal patrol boats and sub-chasers can be developed.

Vandenberg Hits Executive Power

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 13 (AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R.) of Michigan said today that "representative democracy" is threatened by a drift toward concentration of central power in executive hands.

"We are nearer to government by executive decree and by bureaucracy than ever before in our history," he declared in a speech prepared for the Union College commencement.

U. S. to Japs: 'Ships Stay'

SHANGHAI, June 13 (INS)—Using the turbid waters of the swollen Yangtze river as a highway, Japan today carried large-scale naval warfare deep into the interior of China.

Fifty or sixty warships steamed upstream and landed a force totaling nearly 2000 troops above and below Anking.

British advisers said that Anking, city of 110,000 and capital of Anhwei province, midway between Nanking and Hankow, was occupied by the Japanese with little resistance.

Chinese stories that the Japanese landing parties were driven back were denied by the Japanese. Japan's campaign of river warfare broke out immediately after the indignation rejection by America of Nippon's request that American and other foreign ships be withdrawn from the Yangtze.

The U. S. refusal was disclosed by Admiral Harry E. Yarnell, doughty commander of the U. S. Asiatic fleet. He sharply rejected a Japanese request for American vessels to evacuate a 200-mile zone on the Yangtze river between Wuhu and Kiukiang.

Advised of the Japanese request yesterday, Admiral Yarnell wasted little time in serving notice on Japan's high naval command that the U. S. Navy will retain complete freedom of movement to go "wherever Americans are endangered."

PLANS INSPECTION

Speaking for the American navy, Yarnell sent a blunt message to the Japanese in which he not only turned down their request, but indicated he personally plans an inspection trip up the Yangtze and through the war zone.

U. S. gunboats are at Nanking, Lukiang, Ichang and Hankow. Other American naval vessels are close to the "forbidden zone."

Great Britain joined with the United States in rejecting the Japanese demand that foreign vessels be cleared from the river.

British gunboats assigned to Wuhu and Kiu-Kiang were ordered to remain at their posts as 50 or 60 Japanese warships steamed upstream and landed a force totaling nearly 2000 troops above and below Anking.

Japs Apologize

To U. S. for Bombing

HONG KONG, June 13 (INS)—An expression of regret over the bombing of American-owned Lingnan University, near Canton, on June 8 today was added to the series of apologies Japan has made to Washington.

The Japanese consul-general here assured the American consulate that Japanese airplanes were being used in exercises the utmost care in identifying objectives in the future.

Kennedy Gets Final Data For Roosevelt

By WILLIAM HILLMAN

LONDON, June 13—Preparatory to sailing for the United States Wednesday on an important mission for President Roosevelt, Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy today rushed to completion a series of strenuous diplomatic conferences with British government leaders and foreign ambassadors.

Kennedy, who ostensibly is returning to be present at his son's Harvard graduation, had a long conference with Minister Neville Chamberlain at 10 Downing street.

Kennedy then was to see Lord Halifax, British foreign secretary, and Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer.

He has already conferred with Dino Grandi, Italian ambassador, and expects to interview the French ambassador and Germany's Charge d'Affaires Dirksen.

The conferences were drawn up so that Kennedy can give President Roosevelt an up-to-the-minute picture of the international situation.

'The Night Is Young'

Theme Song of Anne and John

By MARJORIE McBRIDE

Theme song of Anne and John's romance is "The Night Is Young and You're So Beautiful." It is the song they've asked for over and over, the song they have danced all through John's Harvard years and Anne's debutante nights.

It is their song of love and will be played expressly for them, at the reception following their marriage in Nahant Saturday.

The night is young and you're so beautiful

Here among the shadows.

Beautiful lady, open your heart."

That is the opening verse of the song, destined to become a part of America's most exciting wedding of the year, the Boston Evening American learned exclusively today.

The song is from Billy Rose's "Casa Manana" show, staged at the Texas Centennial.

Billy Rose and Irving Kahal wrote the lyric, while the music is by Dana Suesse.

These three, and the publishers, Words and Music, Inc., 1619 Broadway, New York, hold the copyright.

Although tradition will be strictly adhered to in all details of Saturday's nuptials in historic Union Church, Anne Clark and John Roosevelt won't dance the customary waltz when they join the reception party at Nahant Club after the ceremony.

Instead, they will step onto the floor for a slow, smooth fox trot, which is their favorite dance. The music will be "I Married an Angel."

While some of the important officials at the function may not dance, Mrs. Roosevelt will probably join the festivities. She loves to dance with her son, and they do the "Bunny Hop," a whirling, skipping step together.

If she chooses to join the reception merry-makers after her official hostess duties are over, the orchestra will strike up "Tiger Rag" for their rollicking "bunny hop."

PLAYED AT DEBUT

Ruby Newman and his men will play for the Big Affair. He played at Anne's debutante party two seasons ago and was on hand when James Roosevelt wed Betsy Cushing several years ago in Brookline. He also played for a number of White House affairs.

John and Anne have danced to his music in New York, Washington and Boston, ever since their first days of romance.

He knows what they like and what they don't like.

There will definitely not be any Pig Apple dancing, Ruby predicts. And no shagging. Anne and John don't favor either. Nor do they care much for waltzing.

Although John is much taller than his fiancée, they make a graceful couple on the floor. They like best to fox trot, slowly, and hum as they dance.

Because of the informality of the reception party, the official piece, "Hail to the Chief," will not be played to greet the President when he joins the reception.

"ANCHORS AWEIGH"

Instead, Ruby will play "Anchors Aweigh," which always delights Mr. Roosevelt.

Other tunes at the dance will be "Always and Always," "Says My Heart," and "Spring Is Here."

For Mrs. Charles Sturgis, the former Barbara Brewer, who will be one of Anne's bridesmaids, Ruby plans to play "Night and Day." She is Anne's cousin and Anne served as her bridesmaid when she was married not so long ago.

She and her husband will probably be one of the first couples on the dance floor, and "Night and Day" is their favorite among the songs.

The reception, starting immediately after the noon ceremony, will last until 5 o'clock.

While guests at the reception have not been asked to appear in formal dress, the orchestra will wear semi-formal morning clothes. They'll play in the right wing of the Nahant Club.

At the clubhouse a squad of police and secret service men will in lanes, designated by the selectmen and police officers.

guard the entrances. Only guests, with cars bearing official "stickers," released by the Nahant town fathers, will be allowed to enter the area near the wedding.

OTHER STICKERS

Other stickers for automobiles have been printed for officials visiting the town that day, residents of the town, business folk, and newspapermen and women.

Early this morning Superintendent Edward Woods of the Metropolitan Police went over the route in the town which will be closed to the public. Traffic will move Doctors' Worry! Who Pays Bill?

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12 (AP)

The official leaders of American medicine today broke the ice for possible convention discussion of "socialized" system of treating persons unable to pay their doctor bills.

They conceded flatly that the demands of indigent and low income groups for free treatment had become too great for the profession to bear alone.

They acknowledged the problem had "forced collective thinking" toward a solution and that it had given rise to proposals that the need be met by federal funds.

LEDLIE LAUGHLIN MRS. CHARLES STURGIS

MELODY AND ROMANCE—Principals and guests will listen to love refrains at wedding of John Roosevelt and Anne Clark, the music being specially arranged by Ruby Newman and his orchestra. For Mrs. Charles Sturgis, former Barbara Brewer, a bridesmaid and cousin of Anne, her favorite song, "Night and Day," will be rendered. Miss Ledlie Laughlin will also act as bridesmaid to Anne. Mrs. Sturgis and Miss Laughlin are shown above in a picture taken when they were dancing pupils.

Melody of Love For Anne, John

"The Night Is Young and You're So Beautiful" is the theme song of Anne and John's romance. The copyright is assigned to Words and Music, Inc., New York City. Here are the words of the chorus:

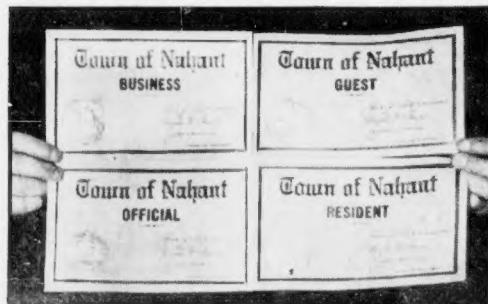

The night is young and you're so beautiful,
Here among the shadows, beautiful lady, open your heart.

The scene is set, the breezes sing of it;
Can't you get into the swing of it, lady, when do we start?

When the lady is kissable and the evening is cool,
Any dream is permissible, in the heart of a fool.

The moon is high and you're so glamorous
And if I seem over-amorous, lady, what can I do?

The night is young and I'm in love with you!

WEDDING DAY PASSES—Here are shown the four official stickers issued by Nahant selectmen to help regulate traffic at coming nuptials of John Roosevelt, President's youngest son, and Anne Lindsey Clark.

Fr. Cox Warns of: 'Redwhite' and 7 Communisms

This is the second of a series on the inevitable failure of Communist propaganda in America as seen by the Rev. Ignatius W. Cox, S. J., Ph.D., authority on Communism, dean of the unusual "labor college" at Fordham University, New York, and rated by Communists as the "most difficult" anti-Red in America.

By WILLIAM MICHELFELDER
Boston Evening American Staff Writer

Redwhite and the seven Communisms.
Earl Browder, wind-blown Kansas boss of American Communism, is Redwhite because he's RED in his convictions, WHITE in his propaganda.

The Rev. Ignatius W. Cox, S. J., Ph.D., interested Communists so much they invited him to address the Lincoln Brigade, American-Tied fighters for Loyalist Spain. They explained it was the "preferred hand."

Father Cox argues it is a perfect example of Redwhite technique.

"Browder thinks if a lar is smart he can get away with it. While admitting Americanism and Communism are opposed to each other, which is RED, he announces that '20th century Americanism' which is to join hands with Christianity and the Founding Fathers—which is WHITE."

THE SEVEN ISMS

The seven Communisms which Browder will NEVER disown are:

- 1.—If Communism wins in America it must have supremacy over a citizen's actions and religious beliefs.
- 2.—The State comes before God.
- 3.—Discourage the individuals desire to make money.
- 4.—Discourage the right to disagree.
- 5.—Maintain "20th century Americanism" as a Communist approval.
- 6.—Forget the laws of morality and have children for the State to control.
- 7.—Materialism and industry are the most important things in life.

Said Father Cox:
"It is true to a certain extent, that Communist activity in America must be regarded as a judgment on our difficulties, economic and religious, and it is a warning against contentment with existing conditions."

RUSSIA BEST EXAMPLE

But as a social barometer, says Father Cox, it goes no further.
"Russia is the simplest example of the doom of Communism. It has had plenty of time to produce something in a culture shattered by the Great War, economic distress and religious conflict."

"There is no sign in Russia that Communism is growing up. Its false 'culture' is a mere borrowing of the civilization of Western Europe which assumes a new complexion through Communist jargon and a vigorous minority in control."

Communism will fail here, as in other parts of the world, believes Father Cox, because changes in political machinery have nothing to do with the human heart. They can only change the forms through which human virtues and vices must find expression.

"Communism will fail in America because our citizens, rooted in TOLERANCE and RESPECT for AMERICAN TRADITION are aware, either consciously or subconsciously, that Communism offers nothing more than a violent experiment."

"Communism will fail because its only success, if you can call it that, was accomplished in a country economically backward."

In a word, said Father Cox, Communism must fail in America because it is impossible for Redwhite and his seven Communisms to hide a hollow perspective of human nature and the poverty of the goal to which they direct mankind.

(Another article of this series will appear in tomorrow's Boston Evening American.)

Insurance Firm Hit as Red

A so-called fraternal benefit society, licensed to sell insurance in Massachusetts, uses foreign language schools to spread Communist propaganda among school children of this state, it was charged today, as the Commonwealth continued its drive against subversive and un-American influences.

The foreign language schools and foreign language newspapers and circulars are all part of a deliberate and well-financed plan to spread Communism in Massachusetts and pave the way for attempted overthrow of the American form of government, State Senator Sybil Holmes of Brookline testified.

She appeared before the joint House and Senate committee on insurance as a rebuttal witness, after she had been accused of unfairness by Philip Gardner, representing the International Workers Order.

The IWO conducts one of the fraternal benefit societies which the investigating commission, headed by Senator Holmes, wishes to have more strictly regulated.

Kelly Campaign Heads Named

George W. Kinnaly of 81 St. Andrews road, East Boston, today was named chairman of the committee to conduct Lieutenant Governor Francis E. Kelly's campaign for governor.

The list filed with Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook, as required by law, is entitled:

"The People's Committee for the Promotion of Liberal and Progressive Leadership and the Advocation of Open Discussion of Public Affairs."

Joseph H. Maguire of 709 Washington street, Dorchester, is named treasurer and the members are cited as: Garrett J. Barry, 117 Dakota street, Dorchester; David F. Keefe, 31 Perkins avenue, Northampton; William J. Gilboy, 440 Appleton street, Holyoke; Joseph F. Pagliaro, 135 Highland avenue, Wintthrop; Samuel H. Duchess of Norfolk Has $50,000,000 Daughter

LONDON, June 13 (INS)—A young lady (one day old) cooed today in infantile ignorance of the fact that never, on account of her sex, will she be premier Earl of England, like her father.

Her parents are the Duke, 30, and Duchess, 22, of Norfolk, who were married January 2, 1937. The baby was born yesterday at a London hospital.

Well may she coo, however, for if a brother is not born, she will be heiress to some $50,000,000.

The duke, whose title dates back to 1483, is hereditary Earl Marshal and as such he arranged last year's coronation ceremony.

He is also the leading Catholic layman of this country.

Woman's Air Dash With Blood Fails

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—A night airplane dash from Chicago by a Joliet, Ill., housewife to give a blood transfusion to 16-year-old Hyman Lieberman failed and he died today of a blood stream infection.

The woman, Mrs. Eugene Koehl, wife of a printer and mother of five children, had been cured of the same ailment.

$50,000,000 BABY—Duchess of Norfolk has become mother of girl who some day may inherit $50,000,000 fortune.

Hope for Rail Action Fades

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Senate Leader Barkley told reporters after a conference with President Roosevelt today that Congress would adjourn Wednesday without enacting "any new" railroad legislation.

"Since we expect to adjourn not later than Wednesday night we do not contemplate that there will be any new railroad legislation this session," Barkley said. The Democratic leader said specifically that a bill to liberalize Reconstruction Corporation loans to railroads was not on the program to be completed before adjournment.

That measure once was reported to the Senate by its banking committee, but was sent back to committee when the railroads proposed a 15 per cent wage cut.

The White House conference was attended by Vice-President Garner, Speaker Bankhead and Representative Rayburn (D.) of Texas, House majority leader.

Abandonment of rail legislation would leave enactment of wage-hour legislation as the key to adjournment.

The wage-hour bill will come before the House tomorrow. In the Senate, some Southerners wanting a lower wage scale for their region considered the compromise unsatisfactory, but there appeared to be a united movement to start a filibuster against the bill.

As a result, Chairman Thomas (D.) of Utah, of the Senate Labor Committee, predicted its approval a few hours after the House acts. The bill would create a nationally uniform minimum wage of 25 cents an hour for industries engaged in interstate commerce 120 days after its enactment. That scale would stay in effect for a year, after which a 30-cent minimum would be ordered for another year.

After that time, boards representing employers, employees and the public would be established to determine minimum for individual industries. They would consider living, production and transportation costs and other factors.

Other measures on which action must be completed before the sessions ends are the relief bill and a deficiency appropriation bill. No delay in action on them is anticipated by congressional leaders.

In asserting Congress would adjourn by Wednesday night, Barkley said this could be done "unless there is a hookup we don't foresee."

This would complete the session before the President leaves Thursday to attend the wedding of his son John and Anne Clark this week end at Nahant, Mass.

Opposition of railroad unions to the RFC lending bill has kept it in the Senate committee. Although Barkley said no effort would be made to pass the measure, informed Senators said they understood the Railway Labor Executives Association would meet tomorrow to reconsider their opposition.

Walsh Sees Wage Bill N. E. Victory

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Senator Walsh (D.) of Massachusetts, said today the wage-hour bill was "an outstanding victory for New England with elimination of regional differentials in wages and hours of employment."

Walsh said "competitive industries, whether in New England, the South, or the West must now pay the same minimum wages and work the same hours."

Boom N. E. Man For Air Board

A New Englander, Norman B. Haley of Milford, Me., will be a member of the new Federal Civil Aeronautics Authority, it was predicted today.

Hale is now director of the Bureau of Air Mail of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He has been connected with the ICC since 1910.

A majority of New England congressmen, Republican and Democratic alike, have jointly recommended Haley's appointment to the new aviation board, Washington reports said today.

What Pay Bill Means

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Here are some pertinent questions and their answers about the wage-hour bill approved by a Senate-House committee:

Q—What employers and employees will be affected by this bill?

A—Those handling goods in interstate commerce.

Q—Are any exempted?

A—Yes, agricultural workers and processors in the area of production; executive, administrative, professional or local retailing employees; seamen; air transport workers; fishing industry workers; employees of weekly or semi-weekly newspapers of less than 3000 circulation, and workers whose hours are regulated by the motor carriers act.

Q—What will be the minimum wage paid employees? A—Twenty-five cents an hour for the first year of the act's operation, 30 cents an hour the next year, and a minimum to be set by boards in each industry after that time. At the end of seven years, all wage minima advance to 40 cents an hour, but boards may approve exceptions where such a wage seriously would curtail employment.

Q—What will be the maximum work week? A—Forty-four hours the first year, 42 the second year, and 40 thereafter.

Q—How would this be enforced?

A—By requiring employers to pay time and a half for all hours worked in excess of the maximum.

Q—Is there any ceiling for hours above which no exemptions can be made? A—Yes, 56 hours.

Q—Does the bill ban child labor? A—Yes, for all children under 14 years. Those between 14 and 16 may work if they obtain a certificate. None under 18 can be employed in a hazardous occupation.

Perkins Denies Labor War Here

GENEVA, June 12 (AP)—Miss Frances Perkins, United States secretary of labor, told the International Labor Conference today that "it would be a mistake to suppose that American industrial relations were those of strife."

She said, however: "The United States has much to learn from other countries regarding the improvement of working conditions and maintenance of good relations between labor and employers."

Sloan Scores Wage-Hour Bill

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—Sharply critical of pending wage-hour legislation, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., chairman of the General Motors Corporation, predicted today automobile production next year would drop to the 1932 level—low point of the last depression—if the present trend continued.

In a letter accompanying quarterly dividend checks to $75,000 stockholders, he declared: "The so-called 'recession' has become, in fact, a 'depression'."

"The national economy has been rapid increase in wages and low demand for goods in many key industries—purchasing power has thus become unbalanced in relation to prices."

Sloan asserted the wage-hour bill would set one section of the nation against another, work undue hardships on small business units, create further unemployment and thus "penalize the very group it is supposed to help."

"The only possible way in which this proposal could accomplish its purpose is by a concurrent increase in the productivity of the workers involved," he said. "Under the circumstances involved in the practical application of the proposal, it is inconceivable that the increased efficiency will offset the increased compensation."

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—She kissed Enzo Piermonte, Italian prizefighter (also) when he departed recently for Italy, but pretty Carol Leiper, Philadelphia heiress, refused to say today if she will be his next wife.

Enzo was freed Saturday when the former Mrs. Madeleine Forbes Astor Dick received her final decree—with a reported settlement of $150,000 on the boxers.

At about the same time, news came from Italy that Piermonte had been in an automobile accident and one of three women companions, Marion Whitworth, 25, an American, suffered two broken ribs.

Pretty Carol Leiper, daughter of Philadelphia aristocracy, created quite a stir when she kissed Enzo good-bye a few weeks ago.

The heiress, a student at the American Academy of Dramatic Art, said, "I have no comment," when queried today.

"Will you deny you are going to marry him?" she then was asked.

"No, I won't deny it; I simply won't comment."

"Well, are you engaged to him?"

"No, I'm continuing with my studies."

Deal on Trial In S. C. Race

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 13 (AP)—A three-man Senate race, with the New Deal as an issue, will get under way in South Carolina tomorrow with the start of a campaign tour on which the candidates are required by Democratic party rule to debate from the same platform in each of the 46 county seats.

Senator E. D. "Cotton Ed" Smith, veteran member of the upper chamber, is opposed for re-nomination by Governor Olin D. Johnston and State Senator Edgar A. Brown of Branchville.

Senator Smith has opposed some New Deal measures. Both Johnston and Brown have announced they were running as New Deal candidates.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 13 (AP)—Democratic voters in Alabama's 34 congressional district will choose tomorrow between a veteran New Dealer, Henry B. Steagall, and a political newcomer, J. Hubert Farmer, in a run-off primary election.

Senate Shelves Redistricting, Too

Governor Hurley's legislative wishes were ignored for a second time within a week today when the State Senate adopted an order for study of reapportionment by a summer recess commission. The House took similar action last week. The order grew out of Governor Hurley's message two weeks ago, in which he demanded re-districting in time for the election this fall. Told the Republican-controlled senate were loath to carry out his suggestion, the governor warned he would keep them in session all summer if necessary.

Cab Driver Held On Bandit Story Of 'Bribe' Offer

A Boston cab driver who picked up an alleged "lone wolf" bandit out of a Boston police headquarters lineup today was subsequently held by police for questioning after the robbery suspect said the cabbie had "offered to get me out of it."

The driver was the third to pick Chester Coulter, alias Paul Revere Burke, 33, of Leominster, out of the lineup as the man who fled a Schrafft candy store in Boylston street, Back Bay, immediately after a holdup there that netted $250.

TELLS OF OFFER

"He drove up beside me," Coulter said, "and asked me if I came out of the store. Then he offered to get me away if I'd give him $10. He said he'd take me to the hall park where I could mingle with the crowd."

The driver denied that he had made any such proposition, and pointed out that when the other two cabbies, who also identified Coulter, had overtaken his cab at Massachusetts avenue and Boylston street after a two-mile chase, he was driving very slowly.

Coulter will again appear in the lineup tomorrow. Police said he confessed he was the bandit who slipped the "give-me-the-money" note to a cashier at Schrafft's candy store in Summer street May 2nd that he got $131. He also admitted candy store robberies in Washington street and Boylston street, May 30 and 31, police claimed.

ACCUSED OF ATTACK

Most of the money was spent "buying steaks and chops" for a newly married couple whom he visited according to police.

Cambridge police said they had a warrant charging Coulter with assault on a nine-year-old girl last April.

At the lineup Coulter again admitted he had staged the latter holdup, saying he had come to Boston last Friday with 12 cents, 10 of which he used to buy a toy pistol with which to hold up the store.

Schools Shut As Sun Shines

Clear skies and sunshine followed heavy rain which today closed many Greater Boston schools, short-circuited fire and police telephones, flooded a Brighton apartment house and caused widespread damage.

Today's storm was accompanied by a temperature drop, which plummeted the mercury from yesterday's high of 88 to a damp and chilly low of 57.

The rain's damage came after yesterday's heat and lightning, which accounted for four deaths, several fires, and many accidents.

In Brighton, 50 persons were driven from an apartment house in Lanark road, when roof drains overflowed, and a flood of rainwater poured through the entire five-story building, sagging plaster ceilings.

Occupants of the house sent emergency calls to Brighton police, who succeeded in clearing the drains and letting several feet of water off the roof. A rubber ball was one of the obstructions which had plugged the drain.

Failure of telephone service in Braintree caused by the rain cut off all calls to police and fire headquarters until a temporary signal system was set up by stationing Patrolman William Garrison at a police box outside the station house.

Yesterday's four deaths included two drownings. Victims were George H. Morrison of Lenoxdale and David Hawley, 32, of Otis.

Heat prostrations caused deaths of Mrs. Florence Pearson, 78, of Appleton street, South End, and John S. Ashburn, 68, of South Atterbury.

Schools were closed today in Revere, Winthrop, Chelsea, Saugus, Brookline, Lynn, Malden, Peabody, Everett and Marblehead.

New Haven Plans All Opposed

Rejection at this time of each of five proposed reorganization plans for the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad was recommended today at Washington to the Interstate Commerce Commission by an ICC examiner.

Under the plans proposed, there would be a drastic scaling down of the debt structure and a slicing in half of fixed charges.

Some 27,000 persons who own New York, New Haven & Hartford stock, and several hundred thousand persons who use the railroad in the course of their daily routine would be affected by the proposed reorganization.

These latter would be affected under a proposed sharp pruning of the physical structure, involving the dropping of trains and abandonment of stations on allegedly unproductive lines.

Other thousands of persons have a stake in the proposal because of financial interest in savings banks and insurance companies, national banks and trust companies which have lent the corporation approximately $258,000,000.

Call O'Connell In Hague Trial

NEWARK, N. J., June 13 (INS)—Subpoenas for Congressmen Jerry O'Connell and John T. Bernard were being taken to Washington today, calling for them to testify as defense witnesses at the Myor Frank Hague "civil rights" trial in Newark federal court.

Corporation Counsel James A. Hamill of Jersey City, who made the announcement, said that O'Connell, Montana Democrat, and Bernard, Minnesota Farmer-Laborite, probably would be called next week.

Hamill said he had been informed that CHD was a City regional director in 1937 and that one of the purposes of calling him was to ascertain whether or not this was a fact.

O'Connell and Bernard gave up one attempt to speak in Jersey City without a permit. O'Connell returned later and was prevented from speaking.

Harvard to Cut Student Body

Harvard's student body will be reduced from 3700 to 3500 within the next few years, it was revealed today, probably by reducing the number of freshmen admitted each year from 1000 to a figure not yet determined.

At the same time the freshman committee on housing was told that its proposal to admit men living in Harvard halls to facilities of Harvard houses had been rejected. The masters of the houses voted against the proposal unanimously on the ground that if they admitted men not living in the houses to the use of the libraries, dining halls and other facilities, it would "disrupt the community feeling of spirit."

Boston Naval Man Weds Australian Beauty Saturday

Moving toward the climax of an international romance, a beautiful Australian girl arrived today in Los Angeles for her marriage, next Saturday, to a popular navy lieutenant from South Boston.

He is Stanley Stephen Dauris of Marine road, South Boston, and Boston Latin School athlete a few years back and a graduate in 1930. She is Miss Joy Harrington, daughter of Mrs. Alma Harrington of Edgely, Australia.

While his ship, the U. S. heavy cruiser Louisville, was on a cruise to Australian waters, Dauris, lieutenant, junior grade, met beautiful Joy and they fell in love.

When Miss Harrington arrived in Los Angeles today aboard the liner Monterey from Australia, she was accompanied by one of her four bridesmaids, all from the Antipodes. The other three already are in Los Angeles.

The bride to be and the bridesmaid were met at the dock by Lieutenant Dauris and by his brother, Al Dauris, who flew from Boston.

Lieutenant Dauris was center on the Latin School football teams a decade ago and was mentioned for the all-scholastic team. He captained the baseball team and was a hockey player of note.

A month after his graduation from Latin School in 1930, he was appointed to Annapolis by Congressman John W. McCormack.

Vets, Cadets To Parade On Flag Day

War veterans, high school cadets and details from the army, navy, marine corps and national guard will take part tomorrow evening in a parade preceding Flag Day exercises on Boston Common.

The parade will start from Copley square and Dartmouth street at 7:15 p. m. and upon arrival at the common, flag lowering ceremonies will be conducted at the municipal flagpole.

Then the exercises will be held at the Parkman Bandstand under direction of Boston Lodge of Elks and with music by the Boston fire department band.

Mayor Tobin will convey official greetings from the city, while the principal address will be delivered by Atty.-Gen. Paul A. Dever.

Joseph A. E. O'Neil, master of Warren School, Charlestown, will lead the pledge to the flag.

Prayer will be led by the Rev. William J. Casey of St. Thomas' Church, Jamaica Plain, and a recitation, "Your Flag and My Flag," will be delivered by John F. Chariton of South Boston High School.

Excited Ruler Joseph L. Murphy of the Elks will preside at the exercises.

ELSIE ROBINSON, via from the woman's viewpoint, discusses every-day affairs and problems, regularly in the Boston American.

State Mourns Justice Rugg

With leaders of the state and nation paying tribute, funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in First Unitarian Church, Worcester, for Arthur Prentice Rugg, 75, who rose from a farm boy to the chief justiceship of the Massachusetts Supreme Court.

The services will be conducted by Dr. Maxwell Savage, pastor of the Worcester church, and burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery, Sterling, not far from the old homestead where the brilliant jurist was born.

The chief justice died of pneumonia at his home in Sterling, bringing to a close a career which saw many honors, the latest that of an honorary degree only last week by Boston College. He was named chief justice of the state's highest court in 1913 by Governor Eugene N. Foss after serving five years as an associate.

Born in Sterling on August 26, 1862, he was graduated from Amherst College in 1883 and from Boston University Law School in 1886.

ALWAYS ACTIVE

Rugg, a Republican, was a member of numerous clubs and a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Throughout the administrations of Presidents Coolidge and Harding he was mentioned prominently for the U. S. Supreme Court or attorney-general post.

Despite his years, he was one of the most active justices on the bench. One of his most recent decisions was delivered May 26 when he upheld a lower court conviction of four women and a physician in the now famous birth-control cases. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Prentice M. Rugg. His father farmed and taught school. He worked his way through Amherst and waited on table in a Boston restaurant to finish his law course at Boston University.

Rugg began his law practice in the office of the late Democratic Congressman, John R. Thayer, of Worcester. Rugg was elected president of the Worcester common council in 1895 and later was named assistant district attorney in Worcester County and city solicitor.

At his appointment, Rugg was the youngest man ever to sit on the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court bench. He was only 44 years old in 1895 when Governor Curtis Guild, a Republican, named him an associate justice. In 1911 he was elevated to chief justice, a record for youth in that post.

DEVOTED TO BOOKS

He was devoted to books, and an associate once said of him:

"Arthur Rugg could live in the Desert of Sahara if you gave him some books."

In 1896 he married Florence May Belcher of Worcester. They had two sons, Charles Belcher, former Worcester county district attorney, and Arthur Prentice, Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. Sidney H. Wirt of Brookline.

Gardening and antiques were his two hobbies.

In addition to the recent honor from Boston College, Rugg also had received honorary degrees from Amherst, Harvard, Boston University and Williams College.

The Boston Bar Association today appointed the following noted attorneys to attend funeral services for Justice Rugg: Herbert Parker, Robert G. Dodge, Leslie W. Warren, Edward McClenen, and Daniel L. Lyne.

High Court Post May Go to Ronan Or Sullivan

regarded as supreme court material.

He has established an enviable reputation for his knowledge of law, much of which he can cite without reference to bulky volumes.

Attorney Sullivan is much along the same type in regard to knowledge of the law.

He also is independently wealthy and of the type that would tend to keep the court on its high, untouchable plane.

The death of Chief Justice Rugg gives Governor Hurley his thirty-second court post to fill since he took office a year ago last January. Several of them are still unfilled.

Two that he had to the Supreme Court were filled through promotions of Judge Arthur W. Davis from Suffolk probate court to succeed the late Justice John C. Crosby and Judge Louis S. Cox to replace the late Justice Edward P. Pierce.

Two of the present members of the Supreme bench appear about even on chances of selection as chief justice. One is Associate Justice Fred T. Field and the other Associate Justice Stanley E. Quin. Justice Field would appear to have the lead because of his longer service on the court. He has served about ten years.

Justice Quin was elevated to the Supreme bench in 1925 after lengthy service as a superior court judge.

Should a vacancy come in the superior court ranks because of a judge being sent up to Supreme Court, former Mayor Frederick W. Mansfield is a possibility to be in line for the superior court bench.

There is a possibility that such a vacancy may occur, because Judge Edward F. Hanly is mentioned as a Supreme Court candidate.

BUSINESS GIRL—1938 MODEL—Office manager Olive Tucker keeps disarmingly calm despite her nerve-nagging days of phones, buzzers, interviews. "If anyone needs healthy nerves, I certainly do," Miss Tucker smiles, adding: "That's one reason why I smoke Camels regularly. They never get my nerves upset." Later—Miss Tucker skips to the roof-top gym for a quick work-out. Next—a shower—a rub—a Camel—and she's up and off again! Tired? Here's Miss Tucker's answer: "Camels give my energy a refreshing 'lift.'" WELKER COCHRAN, who has won many important championships at billiards, voices his choice among cigarettes. Under the strain of a match, Camels never make me feel jittery or unsure. 'I'd walk a mile for a Camel' too!"

DRAMATIC photographs are the specialty of camera-genius Margaret Bourke-White. Miss Bourke-White sums up for Camel cigarettes in: "Sticking to Camels makes a big difference in the fun and contentment I get out of smoking."

JOE DI MAGGIO, baseball idol, comments on his favorite cigarette: "I'm a steady smoker, and Camels don't irritate my throat. That shows Camels have real mildness all right. Watch the ball players pull out Camels!"

CIGARETTES MAY LOOK ALIKE—BUT WHAT AN APPEALING DIFFERENCE THERE IS IN CAMELS!

As a smoker, you'll be interested to read what Miss Tucker, successful young office manager, said about the difference between Camels and other cigarettes (below).

"Olive, do you always serve Camels because you feel that there's a big difference between Camels and other cigarettes?"

"I'm very glad you've brought that question up, Helen. I've tried as many kinds of cigarettes as most people have, I guess, and I'm amazed at how different Camels are. Camels are extra-mild—they never bother my throat at all! And Camels taste so good and rich, yet they never leave me with that 'cigarette' after-taste. Really, in so many ways, Camels agree with me."

OLD MAN BUSINESS licked for another day, Miss Tucker entertains—thoughtfully! There are lots of Camel cigarettes around her living room, Miss Tucker observes: "Camels are the favorite with my guests and are delightful for topping off a meal. During and after dining, I smoke Camels 'for digestion's sake.' Camels set me right!"

"You bet Camel is our choice in cigarettes" say these tobacco planters—and they know tobacco, because they grow it!

Mr. Calvin Wiggins, who has sold tobacco to Camel for 20 years, says: "From my own experience, it's Camel who buys the best—the fine, thin leaves that make the nicest cigarette smoking. Camel bought the really fine baskets of my last crop. I smoke Camels, myself. Most of my grower friends do too. I know, and they know, Camel uses costlier tobaccos!"

"I know just what tobaccos the cigarette companies buy," says Mr. John Durham, Jr., well-known planter. "One year after another, I've seen Camel take the finest grades in the market. They took the best part of my last crop too. Better tobaccos make better smoking. So, like most other planters, I smoke Camels. I know the quality tobacco that's in them!"

John, Anne's Plans Hang On Congress

about, gave newspaper people a brief, noonday interview at the Nahant home of Anne's mother, Mrs. F. Haven Clark.

John kept the reporters waiting a little, but apologized. He had been in Boston and in Cambridge, he said.

Principal object of the trip was to get his mail, which, clinging to bachelor habits, he still has delivered to the Fly Club, at Harvard.

"I hurried right back, however," John said. "This afternoon, Anne and I are just going to sit on the veranda and take it easy."

"I plan to get to bed early tonight. This is going to be a strenuous week."

"Tomorrow we are going to go into Boston and make final checkup of the flowers for the wedding. And I've got to get my wedding clothes, too. They haven't been delivered yet."

"Because of recent capriciousness of the weather, John and Anne are 'counting on' the possibility of rain. Saturday, John said.

RAIN OR SHINE

All arrangements have been made to run the wedding off smoothly, rain or shine, and Anne isn't a bit worried about having sunny skies as a good luck omen, according to her tall, young Harvard fiancé.

None of the Republican Rooseveltians are coming to the wedding, John said today, without comment. He didn't call them the Republican Rooseveltists, but the "Theodore Rooseveltists."

That group includes Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Sr., widow of President "Teddy" Roosevelt; Col. Theodore Roosevelt and his wife, and Alice Roosevelt Longworth.

All were invited. Some sent regrets, others just didn't answer, John said.

"Did any of them send presents?" a reporter asked.

"No," smiled John.

4 GENERATIONS
He called to the attention of newspaper reporters, however, there will be four generations of his branch of the Roosevelt family in the Nahant church when he and Anne meet at the altar.

There'll be Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, whom John always calls "Granny"; there'll be the President and Mrs. Roosevelt; there'll be John and his brothers and sister, Anna, now Mrs. John Boettiger, and there'll be Anne's children, "Sislie" and "Buzzie" Dall.

Enemy, Beware! U. S. Perfects New War Gun

If an enemy invades America from the sea, Uncle Sam has at Watertown arsenal a new type, eight-inch gun, which can hurl a 200-pound projectile 20 miles and which, although it weighs 113 tons, can be rushed from Atlantic to Pacific on a flat car.

MONSTER GUN

Army officials at the arsenal revealed today that the monster gun incorporates all artillery improvements since the World War.

It fires four projectiles per minute, which roar into space at 2400 feet a second. It is capable of smashing an eight-inch armored plate.

Engineers said they had "borrowed heavily on streamlining" and from recent advances in the automobile and railroad industries.

To protect the lives of its "man-power," the army has improved the loading procedure of the gun. It has substituted a fixed loading tray for the old movable table, which was slow and dangerous to the gun crew.

GUARDED SECRET

Closest guarded secret of all is the recoil mechanism, which stops the gun after it thunders out its projectile. Newspapermen were permitted to examine the gun but the recoil secret was concealed by heavy coats of alloy and steel plates.

DIES IN FIRE

LOS ANGELES, June 13 (AP)—Charles Wolkenstein, 40, burned to death and 150 other occupants fled today when fire broke out in an apartment building.

Typewriter Clue In Levine Murder

NEW YORK, June 13 (INS)—A battered typewriter, abandoned in a Fairfield Conn. grove, today led federal men toward a possible "break" in the kidnap murder of 12-year-old Peter Levine. The machine, stolen from a Fairfield railroad depot, was definitely identified as that on which two of the ransom notes were written to the victim's father, Murray Levine.

SORE FEET

How Napoleon's Soldiers Fixed Them Up Right

Sore, aching, burning feet probably cause more misery—more distress—more bad temper and cursing than almost any other human ailment. "Oil your feet," ordered Napoleon to his soldiers before a battle or a long march—he was a clever man. Many a time—overnight—you can take out the sting—the burning—the burning and aching from your poor distressed feet by giving them a good rubbing with penetrating, medicated OMEGA OIL. Sleep more soundly and tomorrow morning find agony will be on its way—thousands know this—you ought to know it—35 cents. "Oil your feet."

Rites for Dowd, Former Sheriff, On Wednesday

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 13.—The funeral of former Sheriff John F. Dowd, 76, a veteran of 35 years of police service, will be held Wednesday with a solemn high mass of requiem at St. Joseph's Cathedral. His death of pneumonia came at the end of a week.

Beginning in 1883, he served as a fireman in Manchester until 1888. When he joined the police force, he rose to the rank of inspector and then that position until 1929, when he was elected sheriff.

He served as sheriff until 1929 when he resigned because of age. He was succeeded by his son, the veteran official then became county clerk and a deputy sheriff.

His widow, Mrs. Anna E. Dowd, 74, wife of Mr. Andrew F. Dowd, a well-known merchant, and Mrs. M. J. Dowd, a well-known merchant, and Mrs. M. J. Dowd, a well-known merchant.

His funeral will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. Joseph's Cathedral. Burial will be in Mount Hope cemetery.

Prayers Soothe Serpent's Sting

Faith Against Snake's Fangs—Unusual Photo of cult "saints" praying at bedside of Mrs. Joe Rushing, 56, Hammand, La., who allowed self to be stung by deadly serpent in religious demonstration. She spurns medical help, believing "faith" will heal her wounds. Devout followers maintain constant vigil as she battles spreading poison.

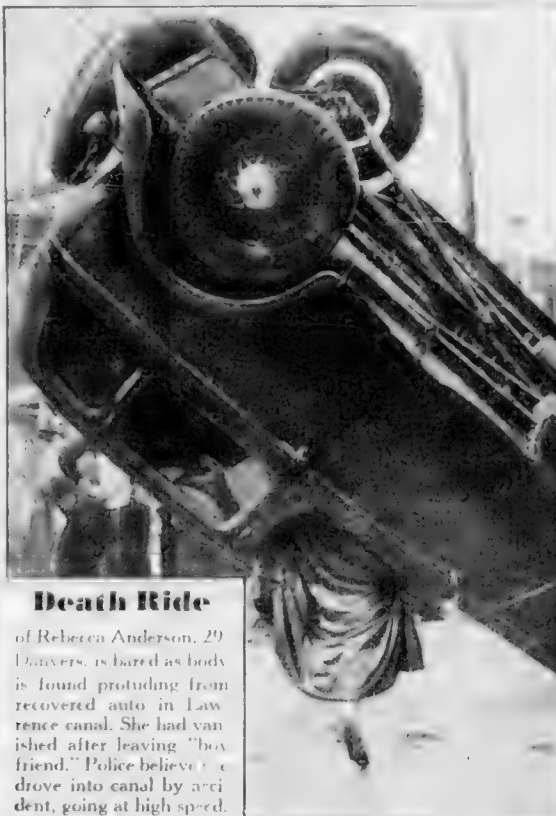

Picture to Paint—This beautiful spot in a driveway is being transferred to canvas by these two youth painters. They are Bettina Chicoine, Quebec, and Evelyn Paris, Dordrecht, students at New England School of Art.

This Lets Her In—Marjorie McPhide, Boston Evening American feature writer covering John Roosevelt-Anne Clark nuptials displays special press sticker on auto window.

Champions All—Katherine West, 19, Dordrecht, N. H., is a champion tennis star. She is also a champion swimmer. Red Fox, Vermont, champion of the state, is also a champion swimmer. Fredrick West, 19, is a champion swimmer. She is also a champion swimmer.

Death Ride

of Rebecca Anderson, 29, Danvers, is bared as body is found protruding from recovered auto in Lawrence canal. She had vanished after leaving "boy friend." Police believe she drove into canal by accident, going at high speed.

Society Doggies Hit by Weather

By BETTY ALDEN

MOTHER Nature and the weather are great levelers. A sudden shower will make a dignified society matron scamper for shelter just as fast as a working girl . . . and yesterday's torrid heat made the pedigreed canine aristocrats at the Ladies Dog Club's outdoor show at Dedham bear a striking resemblance to their lowly, distant relatives sold to hungry tourists at roadside and soda pop stands.

In fact, the dogs which were being exhibited in the show ring became so hot in mid-afternoon that the officials decided to move the judging ring under cover and the formalities of picking the winners were continued under tents.

Hot weather evidently does not bother the little black cocker spaniel owned by Mrs. Henry A. Ross of Chestnut Hill. Pa. whose Summer estate down near Buzzards Bay is one of the show places of Newport. Because it walked away with best in show honors, competing against pairs who were wearing a much lighter set of summer furs and would consequently have been a finer felle . . .

No matter how messy the business of showing dogs, Mrs. Fay Warren Walker, Jr. always contrives to look as spry and as fresh as a nurse when she leads her pets to the show ring . . . Yesterday, she wore a tailored white dress . . . and even though she busied herself helping attendants brush and comb her pets and make them comfy in their cages, she managed to keep her dress fresh and wrinkleless all through the hot afternoon . . .

Her North Shore neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Griess, and their daughters, kept a watchful eye on their well bartered poodles . . . and a lovely picture for an artist to paint was presented by Betty Putnam as she walked around with her arms full of chubby little gray poodles outlined against her pink linen dress . . . Betty, one of the army of candid camera fans, wore her miniature camera slung over her shoulder . . .

The Putnams are leaders among socialite poodle fanciers . . . Mrs. Malcolm Stone shielded her face from the sun's hot rays with a parasol . . . while Mrs. Richard Ely Putnam's wide brimmed navy straw served the same purpose.

Sister Ware was justifiably proud of her little fox terrier who won best in breed, while her mother, Mrs. C. Eliot Ware, and Alice, looked on from the side lines . . .

EVERYTHING BUT YOUELS. One almost expects Gail Neilson to start yodelling when she wears this colorful little peasant costume at debutante luncheons. Gail is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander S. Neilson of Chestnut Hill and slated for debutante honors next autumn. Her dress is a daintily printed challis dirndl and the hat a Tyrolean model of toast colored straw.

Police Court Kramer's Best Arthur Duffey Picked Over Wilful In First Major Test at Revere

By MURRAY KRAMER

BEST BET—POLICE COURT—SIXTH RACE

Arthur Duffey gets the supreme test tonight. The sensational young Wenderland greyhound has won his only four starts and has been matched with the best at the track tonight. If he wins this start, he becomes the "uncrowned" champion.

Since there is no telling how good he is, it's hard to go against him. I'm picking him to catch Wilful in one of his flying finishes.

Old Police Court, once the champion of champions, has been moved down to the sixth race. Placed on the outside, he looks like the best bet of the night.

Countess Cameron Reigns

By MATTHEW KEANEY

TAUNTON, June 13—For my latest wagering hazard at the Taunton dog track tonight I am taking Countess in the ninth race.

This one had some trouble last start but with the red blanket aboard should score over Lady Clerk, which was my best bet and a winner on Friday night last.

For the featured eighth race I am taking Lady to Rhondell to repeat her sterling effort of last out when she raced into a dazzling lead with Ramona Breeze.

B'S LIKE ATHOL HURLER

With the Bees on their way home from Cincinnati and the Red Sox headed for St. Louis there's no big league scheduled today. . . But Cathedral High and Brockton High will settle the schoolboy championship this afternoon at Fenway Park. . . It will be a great feather in the cap of the Catholic League if Johnny Brady huris Cathedral to a win. . . Up in Springfield, Athol and Holyoke high schools are listed to battle for the Western Massachusetts title. . . Tom O'Brien, Athol coach, High School will toss one of the best schoolboy southpaws in New England against Holyoke, one Tony Kveder, in whom the Bees are very much interested. . . Kveder not only is a stand out hurler but he's just about as nifty a first baseman as you'll run across. . . Moreover, he is very fast on his feet and a real hitter. . . Remember the name, Tony Kveder. . . You'll be seeing him. . . Joe Walsh, former Brookline High School boy who was operated on last March, has been working out daily at National League Field, and is about ready to replace the erring Rabbit Warbler at short. . . Although the "boys" now claim they all had Ralph Guldahl to repeat, Freddie Corcoran was the only expert who went out on a limb and predicted that Cherry Hills was built for Mr. Guldahl. . . Art Kenney, former Holy Cross southpaw, and Sebastian Sisti, schoolboy phenom from Buffalo, will be at National League Field tomorrow. . . GRIMES.

Joe Walsh. . . Joe "Tweet" Walsh, former Brookline High School boy who was operated on last March, has been working out daily at National League Field, and is about ready to replace the erring Rabbit Warbler at short. . . Although the "boys" now claim they all had Ralph Guldahl to repeat, Freddie Corcoran was the only expert who went out on a limb and predicted that Cherry Hills was built for Mr. Guldahl. . . Art Kenney, former Holy Cross southpaw, and Sebastian Sisti, schoolboy phenom from Buffalo, will be at National League Field tomorrow. . . GRIMES.

Adams Asks Owners' Aid In Enhancing Racing Fields

By JACK CONWAY

Charles F. Adams, chairman of the board at Suffolk Downs, today called upon the horsemen to co-operate with the track in an effort to obtain larger and more attractive racing fields.

Adams discussed the situation with the horsemen at a special meeting in the clubhouse this morning.

The horsemen expressed a willingness to co-operate with the track management, and it is expected the task of Racing Secretary Gene Bury will be easier from now on.

FOUR STARTERS IN FIELD

With almost every one of its 1200 stalls filled with thoroughbreds, Suffolk Downs has been experiencing difficulty filling races.

The climax was reached last Saturday when there were four races with only five horse fields. In another race there were only four starters.

In the race where there were only four starters, it was necessary to dispense with show betting, which caused the mutual betting to suffer a severe decline.

The total mutual handle at Suffolk Downs on Saturday was the smallest it has been for any Saturday this year.

The poor weather kept the size of the crowd down, but racers proved they would bet when they were offered what they considered a suitable betting race. There was $86,000 wagered on the last race which appealed to the fans.

The claiming war has been at the root of the trouble at Suffolk Downs, George Alexandra, acting for the Medway Stable, and Harvey Campbell, trainer for the Miss A. Doris stable, have been engaged in a halter contest. There have been 96 claims to date.

The Denemark and Rosedale Stables have disregarded the claiming war and have run their horses. The small horsemen with two or three horses have kept their thoroughbreds in their barns or shipped to other tracks.

Agawam and Delaware both have profited as a result of the disastention at Suffolk Downs.

DOG TRACK HURTS

At Agawam, the horsemen have only been making occasional claims which has enabled the up-state track to fill races easily and also attract some of the better horses. The mutual handle at Agawam has been up each week since the track opened, compared to the figures of a year ago.

The average daily mutual handle at Suffolk Downs as a result of the week of the Suffolk meeting it was $442,415 while that of the fourth week was $418,264. The average for the entire meeting in a period of a week dropped from $420,841 to $408,413.

The dog racing at Revere, with its rollicking handle each night, has cut into Suffolk Downs, but the real trouble is in connection with the number of entries in the various races.

No track can break mutual records with four and five-horse races.

Suffolk Downs represents an investment of $2,600,000. It has done its part to help racing and it asks for an even break from the horsemen.

IDA BEST "DUCKER"

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Ida Simmons of Norfolk, Va., was named number one woman duckpin bowler today by the National Duckpin Bowling Congress.

She turned in eight 400 sets and twenty 600 sets during the season, and finished with an average of 130.4 for 460 games.

Hot Night Would Ruin Schmeling

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—If Max Schmeling gets his fine German features splattered by the fists of Joe Louis a week from Wednesday evening, we believe we can tell you now what his aili will be.

Not that we expect Max to lose, but it is as well to be prepared with a swift explanation in the event he forgets to duck, as on another June night when he ran into a young and fresh Max Baer at Yankee Stadium. That was an exceptionally hot night and Schmeling fought as though he were in a daze. Baer brought up ponderous rights, preceded by every form of advance warning except a fire siren, and they all landed right on the Schmeling button.

200 FEET ABOVE SEA

It must have been a great surprise to Baer as it was to the crowd, because up to that time the Liverpool Lohario hadn't been able to hit anybody with a right except Kingfish Levinsky.

Schmeling has always said that the extreme heat got him that night; that his brain was so cooked he could see Baer's punches coming, but couldn't get out of the way.

And the point is, of course, that the night of June 22 might be a hot one, too. This city, in fact, is overdue for a spell of scorching weather. If it does happen, Schmeling is likely to get a few more spots before his eyes.

He is training, against the advice of everyone except Max Schmeling, at Speculator, almost 2000 feet up in the cool Adirondacks.

It isn't much like the Bronx, and the Bronx is where he will encounter the big Negro. The two spots are separated by an average summer temperature of about 30 degrees. So, if it turns up hot on the night of June 22, Max may see spots before his eyes.

Louis Displays Best Before Packed Camp

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 13 (AP)—It may have been only a desire to show a lot of admirers from Harlem that he really is in shape, but Joe Louis apparently has shaken off the lethargy that has marked his workouts in preparation for his heavyweight title defense against Max Schmeling.

What Do You See for June 22, Joe?

GREAT CLINTONIA

JOE LOUIS

JACK ROXBOROUGH

JOE LOUIS, heavyweight champion of the world, and his manager couldn't wait until the night of June 22 to see what fate had in store for them, for they make a trip to the Great Clintonia, the magician, and he let them gaze into the crystal ball. Only they know what they saw, for they wouldn't tell anyone what the crystal ball reflected. The champion is in the center with his manager, Jack Roxborough, on the right, and the Great Clintonia on the left.

No-Hit Vandermeer 'Booted' by Dodgers

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP)—The Reds have a double chuckle in Johnny (No-Hitter) Vander-

Meer . . . The Dodgers . . . discovered him . . . pitching for a Jersey church league back in '33 . . . And then, after farming him to Dayton, mixed up his transfer papers, so Judge Landis had to make him a free agent . . . The Reds picked him up, and Jack Dempsey now he's worth 25 G's of anybody's dough . . . Jack Dempsey is burned up over that story that he was "hopped up" for the big seventh round of the second Tunney right . . . "Never took any dope, hop or drug in any fight," says Jack . . . "I didn't need anything to make me fight; I was always in there to win" . . . And how, Boy . . .

Comeback at 71

'Cy' Hurls at Sharon

SHARON, June 13 (AP)—At 71, Cy Young, one of the original "iron men" of baseball, returned to the mound in a baseball game.

Cy, now a hotel manager in Boston, pitched one inning of an abbreviated game between two teams of the Sacred Heart school here. He struck out one batter and didn't allow any hits.

Young, who won more than 500 games in 115 major league careers, said it was the first time he had pitched since 1911, and that he didn't feel "the least bit tired."

Big League Stars

By Associated Press

Harry Banner, Glade, and Bob Weiland, Cardinals—Banning hit three-for-three in spring victory; Weiland pitched six-inning to take second game, 4-1.

Bob Johnson, Athletics—Batted in right field in 2-2 spring victory over Braves, hitting 14th and 15th homers and single.

Mace Brown and Johnny Rizzo, Pirates—Brown checked Rizzo in relief role for eighth victory; Rizzo hit homer with bases full.

Charley Ruffing, Yankees—Pitched steady game and hit homer with two on base to beat Indians.

Eddie Fiechter, Reds, and Paul Derringer, Reds—Former drove in winning run in 16th inning of opener; latter's good pitching helped win matchup.

Charley Gehrigler, Tigers—Hit homer, two doubles and single in 19-12 victory over Washington.

James Asbell, Cubs, and Fred Fitzsimmons, Dodgers—Asbell doubled, driving home two runs in rally that won first game; Fitzsimmons blanked Cubs with four hits in second.

Ben Chapman, Red Sox, and Gerald Whinnery, White Sox—Chapman's eighth-inning double drove in winning run in first game; Walker's homer in sixth won second.

Storm Victim—While delirious from high fever last night, Irwine Chase, 11, escaped from her home in Brighton and wandered off in the storm. Found clad only in pajamas, she was returned home by police, where she was treated for exposure.

Child in Fever Delirium Wanders Out in Storm

Wandering from her home at 105 Litchfield street, Brighton, in a fever delirium, little Irene Chase, 11, led her parents and police a frantic search early today through rain-swept streets, to be finally found at the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Catherine Clarke, a few doors distant.

The girl was tossing in her bed, her mother watchful at her side. Drowsy from her long vigil, the mother fell asleep. When she awoke Irene's covers had been tossed aside, and the bed was empty.

Frantically, the mother called police, and cruiser cars rushed to the scene. Systematically, they began a search of the neighborhood. While the search continued, Mrs. Clarke called the Chase home and notified the parents. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chase, that the girl was safely in bed at her house. The father took Irene back to her own sickbed.

A doctor was immediately called and Irene, still partly delirious, was given treatment for exposure.

Stock Prices Sag In Light Selling

NEW YORK, June 13 (AP).—Light selling converged on the industrials in today's stock market and leaders were pushed back fractions to $1 a share. There were a few losers of $3 or so at the worst.

Dental Tool Yeggs Get $15,500

Light safe cracksmen took $15,000 worth of diamonds, gold and silver from a Tremont street jewelry firm's fourth floor office, police discovered today.

The cracksmen also took $500 in cash from a safe in the office of Raymond Whitcomb, Inc., in the same building.

Police said the burglaries were the work of professionals. Entrance to the building was made without setting off an electric alarm system.

The yeggs ripped their way through a wall into the office of S. Sandler & Co., the jewelry firm. There they drilled open a safe, using an elaborate tool kit.

One tool they left behind was a dentist's instrument. This the burglars employed to detect the turning of safe tumblers, police said. The burglaries were discovered today, but were committed at an undetermined time during the week-end.

FALLS 35 FEET

Wilfred Boudreau, 34, of Webster avenue, Chelsea, fell 35 feet from a catwalk in the Boston Drydock Company in Chelsea today and fractured his skull, his right arm, right leg, right hip, and left ankle.

Eliot Cabot Near Death In N. Y. Fall

Eliot Cabot, actor-singer of the Boston Cabots and brother-in-law of Ellery Sedgwick, former editor-in-chief of the Atlantic Monthly, was found today in the Bronx, New York, under mysterious circumstances with a fractured skull.

According to a woman witness, Cabot, who deserted Back Bay society more than a decade ago to play in many Broadway successes, plunged from the 18-foot wall surrounding the old Grotto Aqueduct.

He was taken to Morrisania Hospital in the Bronx, where it was said he may not recover.

Three years ago, twice on the same day, Cabot plunged from windows in Cambridge, escaping serious injury.

His identity was learned today from papers in his pocket and his wife, according to New York police, was notified at 54 East 83rd street, Manhattan, although there is no record in Boston of his marriage.

Police said she became hysterical when informed of Cabot's injuries. Later she said:

"Eliot has been in the habit of getting up in the middle of the night and taking walks. I can't understand how he got that far."

Cabot is the 40-year-old son of Mrs. Charles Mills Cabot of Ipswich and Beacon street, Back Bay.

His father, who died in 1915, was a millionaire stock broker. At Harvard, Cabot rowed in the crew.

Qua or Field Due to Get Rugg's Seat

By ALFRED D. WHELTON

One of two outstanding lawyers appeared today to be slated for appointment to the state supreme court bench to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice Arthur Prentice Rugg.

One is James J. Ronan, chief assistant to Attorney General Paul A. Dever. The other is James W. Sullivan, of Lynn, member of the state board of bar examiners.

Either, it was believed today, may be chosen by Governor Murray for the high court post instead of the elevation of a superior court judge to the higher court.

Attorney Ronan was strongly mentioned recently when two vacancies occurred on the bench of the Essex court; probate court, but was believed to have been passed at that time because he was
